Silvana stays at the hotel with the team for the whole trip and is your group's point of contact on the ground. She runs daily logistics, keeps the schedule on track and works directly with your coaching staff.

Every evening she goes over the next day with your head coach. She then confirms the exact times and meet-up points for every departure in the team's WhatsApp group. Updates and any changes go out there in real time, so everyone always knows where to be and when.
